

Lean White Belt Certification

Positive change.

Repeat customers.

"The structure of this curriculum allowed our employees to take what they learned in class and apply it across the whole company. Our employees have a new way of thinking which generates bench strength for leadership and continual transformation."

*Beth Sussey
Quality Assurance, Otis Technologies*

Through active participation in this powerful program, your attendees create positive change in your organization through understanding and implementation of Lean practices.

The public LWB Certification program is ten full day classroom sessions, one class held every two weeks to allow participants time to complete in-plant assignments between sessions. You capture immediate benefits.

We can also bring this program to your facility for companies that have at least eight candidates. Contact us for details.
